Cincinnati School Girls Hurled Into Eternity Without Warning

HEROIC WORK OF THEIR TEACHERS IN RESCUE

Many People Fainted at the Terrible Sight Presented in the Perishing of the Innocents in the Horrible Disaster

ONE of the saddest catastrophes in the annals of school life occurred yesterday at Cincinnati, Ohio, in which a number of innocent school girls lost their lives.
 But the heroic efforts of teachers and citizens to save them is a strong illustration of what Americans will do when distress is before them. The life to the rescuer was not considered.

By Associated Press]
 CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 23.—At least nine school girls were suffocated in the vault today during the afternoon recess at the Pleasant Ridge public school house and a score of others narrowly escaped the same horrible death. All of the victims were from the primary grades.

On the opposite side of spacious grounds in the rear of the suburban school building are two outhouses. At recess about thirty young girls were in an outhouse, assigned to them, when the floor suddenly gave way, precipitating them into a stone walled cesspool twelve feet deep and containing four feet of sewage.

The frantic struggles of those on top kept at least nine girls underneath until they were dead.

The frame shed over the sewer was about twenty feet square, without windows and had only one narrow doorway, so that only one girl escaped falling. She ran into the school building and told the teachers what had happened.

Principal Zimmerman and seven female teachers ran to the rescue. Principal Zimmerman secured a ladder on which the drenched girls climbed out, most of them fainting as soon as they reached the surface, overcome by fright and sewer gas.

The teachers were soon reinforced by the entire population and suburb police and fire departments, rendering effective service.

Principal Zimmerman finally fainted. Others lifted out the dead bodies until

FIGHT WAS A FAILURE

Special to The Journal
 TONOPAH, Nev., Sept. 22.—Tonopah turned out last night for a great prizefight but was wonderfully disappointed. A twenty-five round bout was advertised, but the first round ended the matter with a clean knock-out blow.
 The match was between Lundy, of Bodie and McDonald, of California. Lundy won in the first round with a clean knock-out blow that sent his man to the mat with a dull thud. It was to have been a 25-round go.
 At least $5000 changed hands over the result.

Olympic Boxing Championships.
 By Associated Press]
 ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 22.—Amateur fighters from New York, San Francisco, Chicago and other cities are gathered in St. Louis to take part in the Olympic world's championships.

The tournament, which is conducted under the auspices of the Amateur Athletic Union, opens this evening and will continue through tomorrow and Saturday. The following classes are open to amateurs of the world: 105, 115, 125, 135, 145, 158 pounds and heavy weight. Gold medals will be given to the winners, silver medals to the second and bronze medals to the third. The death-pool was cleared.

Those rescued alive presented such an appearance to make many in the crowd of spectators faint.

Joseph Steinkamp, when his daughter was not among those brought out alive, entered the vault and carried out several bodies, among them that of his daughter. Then he fainted. At the same time there were other parents in waiting in the crowd that fainted when it was announced that all of the living had been rescued and their children were still missing.

BAKERSFIELD'S SUSPECTS ARE ARRESTED

Believed That Dead Mexican Was Killed to Hide the Crime of His Companion After the Railroad Man Was Murdered

By Associated Press]
 BAKERSFIELD, Cal., Sept. 23.—The two Mexicans suspected of having murdered brakeman James Hemppill, of the Southern Pacific railroad near Caliente on Wednesday night have been lodged in jail here by Sheriff Kelly. They have so far declined to make any statement as to their guilt or innocence.

The evidence now at hand shows that in all probabilities the Mexican, whose dead body was found a short distance from that of the murdered brakeman was named Duarte, as he had papers bearing that name on his body and that he was shot by his companions. The wounds were made by bullets and the brakeman never had a pistol.

It is thought that he attempted to prevent the crime and was murdered to keep him from telling the story. As a result of the murder most of the trainmen are going out on their runs armed.

I. O. O. F. Session Nears End.
 By Associated Press]
 SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 23.—Today practically marked the end of the great national gathering of Odd Fellows which has been in session here since Monday. In the Mechanics Pavilion tonight the prizes will be awarded to the winning teams in the competitive drills and this function will be followed by a grand ball, which will bring the week's programme to a close. While many of the visitors will depart for their homes tomorrow, others will remain sight-seeing in this vicinity for several days to come.

Among those who will address the coming congress are Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, Congressman Hepburn of Iowa and other noted champion of pure food laws.

CANADIANS SEIZE AN AMERICAN STEAMER

The Canucks Claim That the Fishermen From This Country Were Poaching Beyond Prescribed Distance

By Associated Press]
 VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 23.—The American steamer Alert of Bellingham and two large scows, one loaded with salmon and $1000 worth of nets, were seized at Oyster Creek, Vancouver Island by the Ruth, a Dominion government fisheries protection steamer. The value of the property seized was about $15,000.

The authorities claim that the American boat was poaching on the fisheries 125 miles from the American boundary. The seized steamer was brought to this port. The master of the Alert is B. D. Teldengurg, of Bellingham with a crew of three.

THE ORE THIEF'S TRIAL

Special to The Journal
 TONOPAH, Nev., Sept. 22.—John Sheridan, who was brought here from Reno on the charge of ore-stealing, was arraigned before Judge Lindsay today on the charge of grand larceny but, upon motion of his attorney, P. M. Bowled, he was discharged.

He was instantly re-arrested, however, by the constable from Goldfield on the same charge and taken to that place for trial.

Sheridan, as stated in The Journal, is charged with stealing over $5000 worth of ore from the Bows-Kernick lease. The evidence is practically conclusive against him.

BROWNIES CLOSING IN UPON CZAR'S SOLDIERS

The End of the Bloodiest War of Foreign Nations is Approaching With Fair Prospects for Japanese Supremacy

A conservative construction of the dispatches last night seem to indicate that the war between Japan and Russia is drawing to a close with prospects for victory for the Japs. It has been one of the bloodiest in the annals of history, probably not excepting the wars waged by Americans against Americans. The close of the present war will be welcomed.

PARIS, Sept. 23.—A St. Petersburg correspondent telegraphs as follows: "Telegrams of which the General Staff have as yet not had any knowledge, reached the Czar at 4 o'clock this morning. I can affirm that they concern Port Arthur regarding which the greatest anxiety prevails at court. The Japanese are now engaged in a general assault, which is more furious than its predecessors. They are attacking the town on three sides simultaneously and employing their whole force; being determined to finish the business."

"The Russian mines blew up whole battalions.
 "General Fock especially distinguished himself in directing the fire from the wall, which the Japanese reached after an indescribable massacre.
 "The whole of Admiral Togo's and Vice Admiral Kamimura's squadrons are aiding in the struggle, which it is feared will be final.
 "The besieged forces are fighting as in a furnace. A perfect storm of shell is falling on the town, port and fortress from the whole hill and roared. General Stoessel is going from fort to fort encouraging the defenders in their desperate efforts.
 "In St. Petersburg the facts concerning the tragic event which perhaps will terminate by a glorious fall of Port Arthur are wholly unknown. At the court, hope has not yet been entirely abandoned."

In Solid Phalanx

MUKDEN, Sept. 24.—The Russians are using war balloons southeast of Mukden to observe the movements of the Japanese. The line of out posts established by the Japanese is so effective that even the Chinese have been unable to penetrate it.

It is impossible to say definitely how Oyama has disposed of his forces. It is believed that General Kuropki's army stretches from Benishu to Bentshiaputze and the armies of Oku and Nodzu from Yentai, along the high road and railroad to Shahepu, sixteen miles south of Mukden, while the fourth army is moving from Dziantchan across the Da mountains. All of these roads converge at Mukden.

Of the four armies, those of Oku and Nodzu are nearest to Mukden and their progress will have to be slackened in order to permit Kuropki and the flanking columns time to come up. In the meantime Oku and Nodzu will have command of the railroad.

May be Rear Guards' Action

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 24.—The absence of detailed reports from the seat of war despite the important character of events that are believed to be developing around Mukden, leads to the supposition that Kuropki may after all not seriously contest the Japanese advance and the long expected battle at Mukden may turn out to be merely a rear guard action on a large scale.

The vote is taken from the Congressional Record.

THE LESSON OF MAINE

THE Democratic vote cast in Maine says the New York World was larger than the any previous election within eighteen years, and larger than the straight Democratic vote of any election in the history of the state. There was a short period in 1880 to 1886 inclusive, when the Maine Democratic cast more votes, but that was the result of the temporary fusion, which carried the State in 1880.

Of course, it would be easy to exaggerate the importance of the Maine returns. The vote is a certain assurance that the Maine people will do any more than those of Vermont, all would be the vote to suppose that the 175,000 voters in these two rural states could settle the decision of fifteen million voters in the United States, particularly the million and a half voters, largely city dwellers in the State of New York.

Of any better guide there is some interest in applying the Maine proportions to other parts of the country.

The returns show a Democratic gain of 30 per cent and a Republican gain of 15 per cent over the vote of 1902. Similar changes elsewhere would give New York to Parker by a plurality of 52,000; New Jersey by 5,000; Rhode Island by 6,000; Maryland by 32,000; Nebraska by 8,000; and Utah by 300. These, with the states carried by Bryan in 1900, would be exactly enough to elect. In addition, New York, West Virginia and Indiana would be in doubt; these states of gain were not far from the margin.

The actual results in November are likely to be considerably different from these interesting possibilities. But there is in the Maine results and in the state of Democratic and independent thought in the nation which it and other signs reveal, the inspiration for moral courage, or political courage, the inspiration for men who believe in the right, just to strive with new courage that their principles, their ideas and their convictions shall prevail.

From this moment there should be infused into the campaign the energy, conviction, of resolve and of confidence. There are in Louisiana, in Illinois and in Wisconsin where the fight should be more intense, fifty-five electoral votes. Nearly two millions and a half voters will go to the polls in these three doubtful states. Chairman Taft, who understands the local conditions, would do his his party and his country a great service by taking personal command of the party forces in these states, leaving New York, New Jersey and Connecticut to the management of men more familiar with conditions in the east.

To these men the coming of Judge Parker to the city, which is announced for today, should mean a spur, an incentive, and an inducement to better work. A leader comes to take command. He should not now relinquish it during the campaign, but must continue to work.

The opportunity for serving the country is now before it. It presents varying possibilities. It is a great opportunity, and the high privilege of the opposition to make the contest more vigorous than ever. It can carry the house of representatives and can carry the senate.

are permitted, and Judge Parker, himself, should be the reinsman of the party.

And with the house for representatives and the electoral vote of New York the opposition for imperialism and Roosevelt would still have gained a vitally important success, even if the presidency were lost.

It would have succeeded in putting in the vote of New York a moral check in the house majority a constitutional bar in the path of the president wild schemes of re-praise for himself, taking the credit for all God's blessings, the beneficent rain and all the kindly acts of Providence. In the meantime, his convenient memory forgets the panics which they were not repeat, has been in force.

"How do the men who fled from the militiamen of the old world, hoping for lighter taxes in this like the figures of a budget that calls for $7,000,000 more expenditures than the entire military budget of Great Britain? Such official extravagance leads to corruption and the nation is the inevitable concomitant of official extravagance. The postoffice department is only an instance of what would be found in other departments if the right kind of a party probe should be inserted by the will of the voters at the election next November.

"We want a man who will not be continually looking for an opportunity for self-advancement, rather we want a man ingrained with respect for the constitution. Such a man the Democratic party has nominated in Judge Parker."

In theologicistic comparison of Roosevelt with Lincoln Secretary Hay and ex-Secretary Root have lost sight of one essential difference among many others in the respective characters and policies. Says the Associated Press Record, Lincoln emancipates millions of blacks. Roosevelt holds millions of brown men in bondage. Outside of the rights guaranteed by the American constitution, the Republican party of forty years ago, and the modern Republican party, has no difference in policy. The original Republican party has as little respect for the constitution as the modern party. The original Republican party was the great emancipator. The modern party is the great oppressor. The original Republican party was the great defender of the constitution. The modern party is the great violator of the constitution. The original Republican party was the great builder of the nation. The modern party is the great destroyer of the nation. The original Republican party was the great savior of the nation. The modern party is the great betrayer of the nation. The original Republican party was the great hero of the nation. The modern party is the great villain of the nation. The original Republican party was the great saint of the nation. The modern party is the great devil of the nation. The original Republican party was the great angel of the nation. The modern party is the great demon of the nation. The original Republican party was the great god of the nation. The modern party is the great devil of the nation. The original Republican party was the great hero of the nation. The modern party is the great villain of the nation. The original Republican party was the great saint of the nation. The modern party is the great devil of the nation. The original Republican party was the great angel of the nation. The modern party is the great demon of the nation. Initial Exhibition of Sparks Athletic Club Will Attract Hundreds Tonight

Everybody in town is talking of the big exhibition to be given by the Sparks Athletic Club tonight. It will be the first effort of the new organization and its initial program gives promise of establishing a mark that will be hard to surpass in the future.

Red Brennan spent Thursday and yesterday training at Loughton Springs. The rain compelled him to do considerable indoor work but nevertheless he did not stop training and his backers state that he will enter the ring in condition to put up a clean exhibition. Harry Hale on the other hand is not loafing any. He is in the pink of condition and full of confidence. Both men have a fine record, so it is said. This insures that the leading number on the program will be a star event.

The preliminaries will also be worth witnessing. The names of the amateurs who will take part in these events is not announced. One of the initial goes, it is said will be a sort of 'bad feeling' affair. Two young men of Reno it is understood will be the participants. Both are suitors for the hand of one girl each is determined in his suit. The result has been that they have agreed to settle their claim by resort to a test of strength and skill in the roped arena. This will undoubtedly be an interesting exhibition.

Yesterday President Malley and Manager Farrell had a force of men at work arranging seats and fixing the ring in the club house. Everything will be in readiness this evening and every indication is that a large crowd will be present from both Reno and Sparks. Special busses will be run from the contest at the conclusion of the program. The club house adjoins J. E. Gilnaugh's Lodge on the O'Sullivan tract.

NEW ENGINES FOR SERVICE

Big Shipment Does Not Give Credence to Success of Hoffman's Experiment

Seven brand new combination oil and coal burning engines passed through Sparks yesterday. They are direct from the Baldwin Locomotive Works and are to be used in the freight service along the lines of the Harriman Company in California, Arizona, Oregon and Nevada. The engines weigh about ninety tons each and are built especially for hauling heavy loads. The driving wheels though small as to size are compact and heavy. This is but a small shipment of a large number of engines ordered by the company during the past several months.

This does not look as if the company intends abandoning its present style of engine to make way for a new invention as recently reported.

The new steam engine it is announced, will revolutionize the railroad traffic of the world.

It is said that after thirty years of experimenting, involving nearly a dozen failures and the expenditure of $150,000 William H. Hoffman, who resides at Buffalo, New York has ready for immediate adoption a steam engine occupying one-fourth the ordinary floor space and consuming one-fourth the ordinary amount of steam and coal.

This new engine, according to the inventor, can be driven at 2,000 revolutions per minute without vibrations, and is capable of pulling a train from New York to San Francisco in a day and a night and from America to Europe in two and a half days. It is named the Hoffman Rotary engine.

Even Cornelius Vanderbilt who has considerable reputation as an inventor of time-saving devices now in use on the New York Central railway says that this marvelous invention will send all others to the scrap iron heap.

A Lourdes Miracle

PARIS Sept. 22--All Paris is talking over the latest Lourdes miracle. For six months Marie Madeleine Glaser, aged 19 has been slowly dying of consumption. Doctors agreed that her case was hopeless and forbade the patient to go to Lourdes. However, she defied the physicians and went.

On her arrival she was completely immersed in the bath. A violent crisis immediately followed the contact with the cold water. The doctor declared that death was at hand, and one of the fathers administered the last sacrament.

But Marie faintly requested to be immersed again, and was dipped four times. Later, perceptibly better, she was brought back to Paris and was carried to the church of Notre Dame des Victoires for the closing ceremony of the national pilgrimage. During the benediction she suddenly rose, those beside her remarking that face seemed transfigured, and began singing a hymn. Then she was gently led out of doors. All the fever had gone. She was in no pain, and when she got home she ate and drank and seemed as happy as if she had never been ill in her life.

Goings and Comings, Doings and Sayings of Sparks People and Their Visitors

Miss Eva Beemer returned yesterday from an extended vacation trip to Santa Cruz.

Frank Young, formerly of the Oberon Cafe, is rapidly recovering from his recent illness.

Mrs. D. H. Taylor, of Susanville, Cal., is in Sparks on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. J. Beemer.

Frank McDonald, of San Francisco, formerly with the Santa Fe, is in Sparks on a visit to old friends.

In order to handle the increased passenger traffic more speedily the company has transferred three engines to the west end.

Assistant Superintendent Shaughnessy spent yesterday between Sparks and Winnemucca inspecting the different departments along the line.

An Unfair Advantage

The merchants of Sparks are complaining over the unfair treatment they are receiving at the hands of the Reno officials. Business men from the county seat are allowed to come to Sparks, solicit and deliver orders without being charged for the privilege. The Reno people retaliate by charging Sparks merchants a license for entering Reno on a similar errand. It certainly does not look fair and from reports if persisted in will result in the organization of a Protective Association.

Back From the Hills

William McCullough, proprietor of the Sparks market returned yesterday from a trip to the hills. He went on a stockbuying expedition, so he states. A number of friends, however, assert he has been doing politics with a view to having the postoffice at Wadsworth removed to the new town.

UNIMINALLY RAIL SATISFACTORY

Fusion Candidates For the Legis- lature the Kind of Men the People Like

The Journal kept its ear open yesterday on the political situation. It wanted to hear what the people had to say about the ticket nominated jointly by the Democrats and Silver men. It wanted to hear the unbiased sentiment of the people. It heard it. Never in the history of Washoe county politics has there been such a universal approval of the action of political bodies. The people practically to a man, outside of the ultra Republican politicians endorse the action of the Democrats and their allies. From the top to the bottom of the ticket are the people satisfied.

Of course the Republican papers find fault. They shed crocodile tears over imaginary outrages and talk of dissensions and all sorts of rot. It is a pretty good sign that when Republican papers complain at any faction they are afraid of it. Whatever they whoop on the average is something they endorse. They are playing the "rump" convention results as a good thing. Do these papers love the nominees of the "rump" convention?

No, they are simply trying to create discord. It is their old game. They are too coarse in their work. They only praise the "rump" candidates because they hope to detract from their real enemy. They do not love the "rump" outfit, but hope to create dissension that they may secure the election of their own unpopular crowd. But it won't work. The "rump" outfit will fizzle out. The regular Republican nominees will go to the wall and Democracy and the true Silver advocates will win in flying colors.

The people generally approve the entire Silver and Democratic ticket. The legislative branch may be especially commended to the public.

LEGISLATIVE TICKET

The Journal is most sincere in saying to the people of Washoe county that the Democratic-Silver convention placed in the field a legislative ticket that for character and thorough representation, is deserving of the support of every voter of our county.

The men who constitute the Fusion legislative ticket and whose election means the election of John Sparks to the Senate of the United States, stand with enviable names and noble characters in our midst. Not only are they among our leading business men and citizens today, but their lives have been so far spent with us and among us.

They need no introduction through the columns of The Journal, for their homes and families and affiliation with our commonwealth, give them standing beyond words. The election of the eight men mentioned below and them alone, assures the election of Sparks.

It is indeed, seldom that Washoe county has been able to present to one of her native born and native educated sons the honor of her highest legislative position. The State Senate demands the highest rank of manhood; the dignity of the position calls for a strength of intellect and manliness of character. The Democratic forces have indeed placed for that position, one of Washoe's sons, possessed of all these requirements and worthy of the honor in every respect.

P. A. McCARRAN

The popularity and strength of P. A. McCarran was most emphatically manifest in Thursday's convention. The mere mention of his name brought the convention to its feet in wild applause and no name was presented in opposition to him.

Mr. McCarran was born in the town of Reno and educated in our high schools, later completing his education in the State University. His career through these institutions was marked by his repeated success in deliberative and debating work and his untiring efforts to bring forth the best and highest standard in these lines.

The record of P. A. McCarran in the last Legislature stands as a mark of honor to his name. The friend to labor, the recognizer of the rights of individuals, and the upholder of the principles of right are the attributes belonging to our next State Senator. His voice was ever raised in defence of right, in condemnation of the wrong and his election to the Senate would only enhance his past record and bestow upon him a well-earned reward.

LF

DISTRICT ATTORNEY

W. H. A. PIKE

W. H. A. Pike, as the Democratic-Silver nominee for District Attorney, is only what everyone expected and a deserving recognition of a capable, painstaking officer. During the four years which District Attorney Pike has been the prosecuting officer of Washoe county, he has gained for himself not only a State, but a Pacific coast reputation, as one of the best district attorneys ever known in the west.

The records at the court house show Assembly. Mr. Eason, his lived and prospered in Truckee Meadows for years and surrounded by his family, he holds the esteem of every citizen who knows him. Such honest, open characters as are wanted in our legislative halls.

JAMES CROSBY

Honest James Crosby, from Wadsworth, comes again before the people for the Assembly. Two years ago Mr. Crosby served a term in that capacity, and let it be said that the honest blacksmith from Wadsworth was respected and honored by every member of the lower house of our State Legislature. His judgment was always considered the best and his cool and determined manner won for him many friends and gave him a standing of the highest character among his colleagues.

H. W. PATTON

H. W. Patton is one of the pioneers of the town of Sparks. He was early attracted by the rumors of the great work to be undertaken by the railroad company and was quick to grasp the opportunities offered in the building of a new city. With the energy of a natural leader among men, he soon became a prominent figure in all that pertained to the town in which he had cast his future.

He is a strong advocate of public improvements and can always be relied upon to favor anything that will tend to the advancement of the business interests of Washoe county. He is a clear and forceful debater and will be a valuable member on the floor of the lower house.

JAMES HIGGINS

In the candidacy of James Higgins Washoe county will have a legislator who will be awake to the needs of the agricultural element. Himself a taxpayer, a man of good judgment and recognized ability, no mistake can be made in placing the interests of the county in his care. Mr. Higgins has never before been a candidate for political office and accepted the nomination only at the solicitation of his many friends, who believe he possesses the qualifications necessary for a first class representative.

PETER BURKE

Peter Burke is one of the oldest and best known citizens of Reno and Washoe county. Four years ago he served a term in the Legislature receiving the largest vote on the legislative ticket. While not an orator, he is a man of sound judgment and unimpeachable that he has secured the conviction of more criminals from Washoe county during the last four years, than have been convicted in all other counties of the State put together. This is indeed, a remarkable showing, and one of which any prosecuting officer may well feel proud. That the criminal element stands in terror of him goes without saying. That the efficient officer will be elected by a handsome majority, is beyond question.

He is a progressive, alert, and active citizen, interested in everything that will be to the benefit of the State and county, in which he has spent many years and in whose upbuilding he has been a prominent figure.

If the Japanese gain a foot hold at Fu Pass, Kuropatkin's position at Mukden will be insecure as the Japanese will then be able to threaten the Russian line of communications. Fu Pass is only twenty miles north of Bentslaputze, but at the present rate of progress the Japanese will probably occupy four or five days in traversing these twenty miles.
